

Civil Rights Compliance & Working with Victims with Disabilities

Friday, September 14, 2012
9:00am — 4:00pm
Vermont Technical College
Red School House
Randolph, Vermont

Interpretation and other accommodation available upon request

A Training for Prosecutors and Victim Advocates

Sponsored by Vermont Center for Crime Victim Services and the Vermont Department of State's Attorneys and Sheriffs

Training Goal:

To review the Americans with Disabilities Act, examining various legislative and practical issues related to working with victims with disabilities throughout the criminal justice process, as guided by compliance with state and federal Civil Rights obligations.

CLICK HERE to register: <http://civilrightscompliance.eventbrite.com>

Additional Information:

Training is free of charge
Morning refreshments and lunch provided
ASL interpretation provided
CLE application pending, expecting 5 hrs.

Presenters From:

Vermont Human Rights Commission
United State Attorney's Office, Vermont
Franklin County State's Attorney Office
Disability Law Project, Vermont Legal Aid
Deaf Vermonters Advocacy Services
Clarina Howard Nichols Center
Lamoille County State's Attorney's Office
Vermont Center for Independent Living
Communications Support Project, Disability Rights Vermont

