

An overview of all aspects of human trafficking in Vermont —
What it looks like, legal options, local services and how to respond.

MONTPELIER: June 11th, 10am-12pm
State House, 115 State St, Rm. 10

RUTLAND: July 16th, 1pm-3pm
Rutland Free Library, 10 Court St.

BENNINGTON: July 10th, 1pm-3pm
VT Veterans Home, 325 North St.

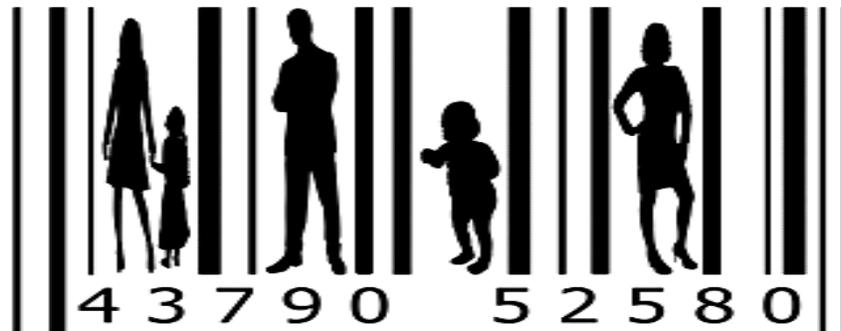

ST. JOHNSBURY: July 23rd, 10am-12pm
Catamount Arts, 115 Eastern Ave.

BRATTLEBORO: July 11th, 10am-12pm
Bratt. Savings & Loan, 221 Main St, Community Rm.

BURLINGTON: Aug. 20th, 1pm-3pm
Fletcher Free Library, 235 College St, Community Rm.

This training is intended for service professionals including those in the following fields: Physical and Mental Health, Law Enforcement, Victims Services, Corrections, Child and Youth Services, Community Justice Centers, Disability Service Community, Low Income Service Community and others.

Human Trafficking in Vermont: Context, Signs, and Local Response Options

CLICK HERE to Register - http://HumanTraffickingInfoVT.eventbrite.com

Presenters:

Edith Klimoski, Director, Give Way to Freedom

Give Way to Freedom Inc. is a private foundation that promotes awareness of Human Trafficking and supports projects that provide care and empowerment for people who have been trafficked. Edith Klimoski is the co-founder and Director of Give Way to Freedom.

Art Edersheim, Staff Attorney, Assistant Professor of Law

South Royalton Legal Clinic is Vermont Law School's Civil Litigation Clinic. Four attorneys supervise up to twenty-one law students who represent low-income Vermonters. Art Edersheim has been practicing immigration law since 2003.

Presentation sponsored by:

South Royalton Legal Clinic

