

Training of Trainers 2013:

Taking Your Training to the Next Level by Enhancing a Participant Focus and Demystifying Technology

Location:

Gifford Medical Center
44 South Main Street
Randolph, VT 05060

February 4th, 2013
Montpelier, VT

Registration DUE:
January 18th

General Information:

In partnership, the Vermont Center for Crime Victim Services and the Vermont Network Against Domestic and Sexual Violence have designed a one day training addressing training & technical assistance needs expressed in the 2012 Training of Trainers needs assessment.

- Space is accessible*
- This training is Free*
- Lunch will be provided*
- 8:30 am -4:30 pm (registration opens at 8:30)*
- As we get closer to the training date our planning team will send out additional logistical information.*
- Please click on or copy into a web browser, our eventbrite link to register:*
<http://trainingoftrainers2012.eventbrite.com>

This training is designed for professionals who offer trainings either within in their agencies or to outside community partners.

Content will address how to best serve a diverse participant audience by using innovative training methodologies, weaving new knowledge with best practices and incorporating practical application.

AgendaTentative:

- 8:30 -9:00am Registration (breakfast), introductions
- 9:00 -9:15am Ice Breaker
Mandy Park, Ana Cimino, Sharon Davis
- 9:15-10:45am Participant Training Design: Reaching Out to Diverse Learning Styles and Perspectives Using Innovative Methodologies and Mediums.
Mandy Park
- 10:45 -11:00am BREAK
- 11:00 – 12:00pm Holding Attention and Energy Throughout Your Presentation
Ana Cimino
- 12:00 -1:00pm LUNCH
- 1:00 – 2:00pm Technology: How We Use It to Reach Our Audience
- 2:00 – 2:15pm BREAK
- 2:15 – 4:00pm Practice: Putting Methodology and Technology to Work
Mandy Park, Ana Cimino, Sharon Davis
- 4:00-4:30pm Reflections and Questions