September 2013

To All Vermonters:

We would like to continue to dedicate this year's edition of the Vermont Victim Services Resource Directory to Elinor Earle, who lost her courageous battle to cancer in May 2011. Without her tireless research and organizational skills, this project would never have materialized.

This resource directory is updated on an annual basis and serves as a comprehensive guide for all service providers in our State.

We trust you will find this guide useful and informative. We want you to know there are many avenues for help in Vermont. Please know you are not alone.

Sincerely,

TRISTRAM J. COFFIN
United States Attorney

2-1-1 is the number to call to receive person-to-person assistance to help you find answers to your questions.

Our call specialists are highly trained to listen and assess a caller's situation. Using the 2-1-1 database, combined with their knowledge of community resources, call specialists will work with you to find help.

Dialing 2-1-1 is a local call from anywhere in Vermont. The service is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. You can dial 1-866-652-4636 toll free in Vermont.

This program was launched in 2005 through the joint effort of United Ways of Vermont, the Vermont Agency of Human Services and many other stakeholders from around the state. Vermont is the second New England state to join the national 2-1-1 Program, which reaches the U.S. population across all 50 states.

COMMUNITY RESTORATIVE JUSTICE CENTERS

The Community Justice Network of Vermont is made up of Community Justice Centers and Community Justice Programs statewide. Its mission is to broaden and strengthen Vermont's restorative practices through leadership, advocacy, education, and partnerships. Community Justice Centers (CJCs) and Community Justice Programs (CJPs) are community based and improve community health and public safety by helping people whose lives are disrupted by conflict or crime. They recognize the potential for citizens to live in harmony with their neighbors and to contribute to the civility and well-being of the community. In addition, CJCs/CJPs play a key role in successful offender re-entry to communities, including; intensive support services related to employment, housing, mentoring, social life and restoring the harm caused by their crime. The network is a 501(c) 3 non-profit and focuses on education, outreach, data collection, standards and best practice, communication/information sharing, training, networking and pursues grant funding opportunities on behalf of its members.

COURT DIVERSION PROGRAMS

Court Diversion programs afford a regionally-based restorative method for dealing with first time offenders. Citizen volunteers sit on panels that meet with offenders to make a contract for redress of the harms done. For information see county phone listings or contact appropriate State's Attorney office. Some Diversion organizations include a variety of services beyond Diversion.

Responding to the needs of crime victims is part of Court Diversion's mission.

Court Diversion is a restorative alternative to the court process for individuals charged with a crime in Criminal Division or a delinquency in Family Division. If completed successfully, there is no criminal conviction.

The State's Attorney refers eligible offenders (called 'Diversion participants') to Court Diversion. Diversion participants do not go through the standard court process. Diversion participants must:

- Accept responsibility for their actions.
- Be willing to take steps to repair harm caused.
- Agree to share relevant case information with the victim.

Victims are informed if their case is referred to Diversion. Diversion gives victims choices around the information they can receive and the degree to which they want to be involved. Victims can receive information on meeting dates with the Diversion participant, status of the case and relevant requirements, and whether the Diversion participant completed the program successfully or was returned to court. Diversion programs want to hear from victims. If victims would like to share how the crime impacted them, they can speak to a case manager, send in a Victim Impact Statement or actively participate in the process to discuss what a Diversion participant must do in order to complete the program. It is important that Diversion Programs have current contact information for each victim. For more information, please visit: <http://vtcourtdiversion.org/information-for-victims/>

Court Diversion also operates the Youth Substance Abuse Safety Program (underage possession of alcohol or marijuana civil violations) and the Civil DLS Diversion Program. These programs are run by non-profit agencies that receive funding from Vermont's Attorney General to provide the services. All of the programs are members of the Vermont Association of Court Diversion Programs (VACDP). For more information, please visit www.vtcourtdiversion.org

CRIMINAL DIVISIONS

(800) 540-9990: Statewide 24-hour toll-free number to reach Family Court in your county to obtain a Relief from Abuse Order

Website: <http://www.vermontjudiciary.org>

District Court is responsible for hearing nearly all criminal cases, some civil cases, civil suspension, fish and wildlife violations, appeals of traffic tickets and municipal ordinance violation decisions.

Family Court is responsible for the divorce actions, other domestic actions (primarily parentage) and post judgment actions filed each year. Most of the post-judgment actions involve attempts by parents to modify or enforce child support, visitation or custody orders.

The Family Court is also responsible for motions to establish, modify or enforce child support; juvenile delinquency cases; cases involving the abuse and neglect of children; cases in which the state seeks to terminate parental rights; and petitions for relief from domestic abuse and other family matters, including how the state should care for persons with mental illness and developmental disabilities.

They assist in identifying domestic violence within child abuse cases, assess the safety of child and adult victims, and intervene to increase the safety and support of those victims. They accept referrals from local community programs, other advocates, counselors, and service users. Cases do not have to involve DCF to be referred to the DV Unit.

REPARATIVE PROBATION AND YOUTH RESTORATIVE PANELS IN THE COMMUNITY

Approximately 70 town or neighborhood volunteer citizen panels throughout Vermont meet regularly to offer a community-based alternative to standard probation for adults, as well as youth. Cases are referred from court and all affected parties are invited to participate. These neighborhood panels bring the offenders, the victims and the community together in a process to identify the harms done, decide how to repair those harms and make a plan of accountability for those responsible for making the repairs.

Adult panels are administered by town or city justice centers (see above) or supported by the Department of Corrections in towns where there is no justice center/program.

Contact: Justice Centers or local Corrections Office

Youth panels are contracted by the Department of Children and Family Services through local Diversion or Youth Services offices.

Contact: Diversion programs or local Youth Services offices

VERMONT RESTITUTION UNIT

State of Vermont Restitution Unit
P. O. Box 10
Waterbury, VT 05676

The State of Vermont Restitution Unit was created by the state legislature to address the financial hardship caused to crime victims waiting for an offender to pay restitution. For any restitution ordered on or after July 1, 2004, the Restitution Unit pays victims their restitution as soon as it has been ordered by the court. The payments are made from the Restitution Fund. The Restitution Unit will then collect the outstanding amount from the offender and reimburse the Fund.

There is a cap on the maximum restitution payment from the Restitution Fund. However, if a judge orders an offender to pay restitution in excess of the capped amount, the Restitution Unit will attempt to collect the full amount and reimburse victims the full amount.

If you have questions about court-ordered offender restitution, or about the Restitution Unit, please call (800) 584-3485 or (802)241-4688

The Safe at Home Program is part of an overall safety plan for victims of domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking (and their children). Participants include those who live in a location unknown to the abuser, have recently moved or who intend to relocate in the near future to a safe place unknown to the abuser.

The program provides participants with a substitute mailing address to be used as their legal residence, work and/or school address. First-class mail is sent to a substitute post office box, where it is then forwarded, at no cost, by the Safe at Home program to the participant's confidential location.

The program provides a substitute address so abusers cannot locate victims through the public record system (i.e., voter registration, motor vehicle records, marriage or birth records). The program also permits participants to vote in their districts as "blind ballot" absentee voters.

You may apply to the program by contacting a domestic violence/sexual assault program in your community. Please call Safe at Home or check our website for a listing of advocates in the program.

SEX OFFENDER REGISTRY

Sex Offender Registry Coordinator
Department of Public Safety

Waterbury, VT 05671
(802) 244-8727
www.dps.state.vt.us

The Vermont Department of Public Safety maintains the Sex Offender Registry. Generally, offenders who have been convicted of sexual offenses, as defined by law, on or after July 1, 1996 or released on or after that date, in Vermont or any other state, are required to register.

If you have been the victim of sexual violence and your offender has been convicted and sentenced for the crime, you have the right to be notified by the Vermont Sex Offender Registry in writing of the offender's current address. This notification is to be made promptly, both when the offender initially registers with the Vermont Sex Offender Registry and anytime the offender changes his/her address.

To be notified of the offender's location, you must complete a Victim Notification Form and return it to the Vermont Sex Offender Registry. To receive a notification form, contact the Sex Offender Registry Coordinator or visit the Department of Public Safety's website.

The Department of Public Safety plans to post information about certain classes of sex offenders on its website, including current photographs of offenders, the type of crime for which he/she was convicted, where he/she currently resides and the contact information for his/her supervising correctional officer. After registering with a user name and password, anyone 18 years of age or older will have access to this website. For more information, visit the Department of Public Safety website.

INFORMATION FOR VICTIMS OF SEXUAL ASSAULT

You do not need to report the sexual assault to the police to receive these free services.

Call 1-800-750-1213 or 1-800-845-4874 (TTY) for immediate help.

Sexual assault is a serious crime. As a victim of this crime, you have rights, as well as access to people who can help you. An advocate from a rape crisis center is available to accompany you to the hospital or to a doctor, and to assist you with legal, police and social services.

Trained SANE (Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner) nurses are available at every hospital in Vermont. They provide medical care, perform a sexual assault exam, give you information, and gather medical evidence. The exam should be performed within 72 hours (3 days) of the sexual assault. Follow-up care is also available. As of July 1, 2008 free counseling is available for sexual assault survivors.

If you are worried about HIV exposure through sexual assault, you need to be evaluated immediately by a medical professional, such as a SANE nurse. The hospital emergency room is the best place to go.

In some instances, drugs can prevent HIV infection after you have been exposed to the virus. However, for the drugs to be effective, you must take them within 48 hours (2 days) after the sexual assault.

Free counseling, testing, preventative treatment and support services for HIV infection prevention are available for sexual assault survivors.

Payment for these services is made by the Vermont Center for Crime Victim Services.

Emerge provides both supervised visitation (a trained staff member supervises contact between a non-residential parent and child), and supervised exchange (a trained staff member exchanges a child from one parent to another without the parents having contact with each other) for families throughout the Upper Valley. Cases can be either voluntary or court-ordered. Emerge handles cases involving domestic violence, sexual assault, child abuse and stalking. The goal is to keep children and survivors safe during parent-child contact.

VICTIM ADVOCATES, STATE'S ATTORNEY'S OFFICES

The Vermont Victim Assistance Program maintains 24 advocates in the Attorney General's and State's Attorneys' offices throughout Vermont's 14 counties. Victim advocates guide victims through the criminal justice process and serve as a liaison with the State's Attorneys and other criminal justice agencies. Many counties have "specialized" advocates who focus solely on cases of domestic violence, sexual assault, or child abuse.

Victim advocates provide information on the status of court cases, notify victims of hearings, prepare victims to testify, and assist victims with applications for Victims Compensation. They also assist victims with completing Victim Impact Statements, requesting restitution and requesting notification of their offender's release. In addition, advocates provide short-term counseling and emotional support to victims, accompany them to court, and help to ensure that they are not re-victimized by the criminal justice process.

Advocates are involved in local task forces and provide outreach and training to other state and community agencies working with victims of crime. Through their hard work and dedication, the advocates of Vermont's Victim Assistance Program have created many positive changes impacting Vermont's crime victims.

If you have any questions, please call the Victim Assistance Program Coordinator at the Center for Crime Victim Services at 802-241-1426.
